starting with p45 radio july-08-show, and doing 008-0510 as well as 023-0911, the sound of dxm soundsystem (aka djs guyus & new.com; dubexmachina, zürich/switzerland) underwent quite some changes. this is not least the effect of 5 years of promoting and clubbing with dubexmachina: so many good friends, interesting artists, mindblowing records, and controversial discussions about the evolution music and club culture! this show presents what we currently carry around in our record bags: we call it bass music, and we love it!

additionally this show opens a new era for comfortnoise podcast. for the first time we're streaming from tree park studios, zürich/switzerland. witness from now the development of our own studio: it's all about the highest achievable sound quality, the trailblazing streaming technology of livebeats, and of course: a perfectly matching visual appearance in a pleasant surrounding for our guests and friends!
